Thank you for your interest in Cincinnati Public Radio! The goal of our internship program is to give you the opportunity to observe and work in all areas of the WVXU news department. Internships will include a rotation through the various aspects of the news department including observing hosting, reporting, editing, and producing. See attached syllabus.

The candidate should have:

- an interest in news with a thorough knowledge of current events
- completed broadcast news writing classes (print classes also helpful)
- a general knowledge of broadcast equipment, (audio editing software, field recorder etc.).

Scheduling is flexible, but all interns must commit to a minimum of 15 hours per week for 9-12 weeks. As much as is possible, we will work with any requirements from your school.

Please complete the following application and send with your resume to search@cinradio.org.

Name:__________________________________________________________

Phone Number:__________________________________________________

Address:_______________________________________________________

E-mail address:_________________________________________________

School:________________________________________________________

Why do you want to intern in the WVXU newsroom? __________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Journalism classes completed:________________________________________

Do you have any prior related news experience (ex. writing for a school paper)? ______________

____________________________________________________________________

What area of journalism is of most interest to you? __________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Please list one reference (name & phone/e-mail): __________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Have you been involved in any political causes or activism? __________________________

____________________________________________________________________